Newsletter Number 39

July 14th 2017

Dear Parents and Friends,

Year 6 Production

Our children showed just how amazingly talented they really are. The show has really helped unearth some real musical and dramatical talent. Well done to all our Y6 children-You put on a brilliant show!

Newsletter/website.

Firstly thank you to those of you who read this every week. We put it on the website and email it out to the emails we have for you.

The website can also be seen through a free app -Schudio School App then put in the postcode and all of it is on your phone for free.

Blog

A new addition to our website under the parents section informing you of what your child/children have been learning this week. Please take a look.

Please see some photos of school life on our twitter link:

Chaplaincy Newsletter

This is a new monthly newsletter that can be found on our website. Please take a look at this month's edition

Complaints

If you have a complaint relating to a pupil, parent or member of staff please see Mr Craft as laid out in the Grievance Policy, which can be found on the website. As you are aware Mr Craft is readily available to Speak to before and after school. If that does not suit, please phone the school office to make an appointment.

Attendance

If your child is not coming into school, please call the school office by 10am on the first day they are absent and let us know the reason.

Contact Information

Please make sure you keep us updated in any changes to addresses, emails and telephone numbers.

Parent Pay

Your child will no longer receive a hot dinner if their account is not at least £2.10 in credit. An emergency meal could be given at Mr Craft's discretion if you contact the Office before 9.30am. It is your responsibility to make sure your child's parent pay is in credit at all times.

PE Kits

Please make sure all PE Kits are in school. Navy blue shorts, a plain white T shirt and black plimsolls. No loopy earrings are allowed only small studs which must come out for PE.

Summer Reading Challenge

This year's Summer Reading Challenge is ANIMAL AGENTS, featuring characters exclusively designed by the award-winning children's illustrator, Tony Ross.

Your child can help the Animal Agents, a bunch of furry, slippery and four-legged friends, solve a library mystery - with a huge helping of fun along the way! It's totally free and to get started all your child has to do is sign up at the library where they will be given a collector folder to keep a record of their Summer Reading Challenge journey.

As they read their books, each child will receive special stickers to complete their folder. Once they have collected the stickers they will be able to crack the case and catch the crook!

Children are encouraged to read at least six library books. They can be any books they like - novels, fact books, joke books, e-books or audio books, they all count - and your library will have staff and volunteers on hand to help children choose books they will really enjoy.

The Challenge is a great time to share and talk about books as a family. Sitting down with a book, newspaper or magazine sets a good example to kids - they will copy you. Children enjoy taking part and many teachers tell us that they return to school with a new enthusiasm and confidence for reading.

This link should take you to the OFSTED parents questionnaire. Please complete it when you get a moment. All the evidence helps us.

Mobile Phone Safety Advice

Please speak to your children about the following:

- Think about who you give your number to - you don't know where it might end up.
- If you receive a nasty text save it for evidence but don't reply to it, if you reply you are likely to get yourself in trouble too.
- Remember to be a good digizen (digital citizen) try to talk quietly on mobiles in public places and keep your music quiet.
- A growing number of viruses are attacking mobile phones, be careful what you download onto your mobile.
- If you often receive spam (junk mail) texts from random numbers report it to your mobile phone operator

Breakfast Club

PLEASE MAKE SURE YOU HAVE COMPLETED A BREAKFAST CLUB REGISTRATION FORM IF YOUR CHILD IS TO ATTEND BREAKFAST CLUB.

As from Monday 18th September 2017 we will not be taking any cash for Breakfast club payments. All Payments are to be made in advance via Parentpay. (please see website for more information)

7.45am - 8.45am (last entrance at 8.30am) £2.00 per session

Please make sure a responsible adult drops your children off at breakfast club and not an older sibling from the school who will then either go home or out to an adult waiting in the car. Once your child is on school premises they are expected to stay.
