Newsletter Number 23

March 3rd 2017

Dear Parents and Friends,

Dropping children off

Please do not pull into the drive way to drop your children off in the morning, the drive way is constantly in use by our staff and deliveries.

When children come into school they must walk on the path not on the roadway. Parents must accompany children in the infants every time. I do not want an accident. Children and vehicles don't mix!

Celebration of books Monday 27th February until Friday 10th March

Book in a box

As part of their home learning we are inviting children to create a "Book-in-a-box". Using a box (shoe box, cereal box etc) the children are to take their favourite book, and using a range of materials and effects, create a scene from the book in the box. This was a huge success last year! These will need to be in school by Thursday 9th March.

Celebration of books dress up day - Friday 10th March

Each year group will be studying a particular book during this exciting fortnight. Below is a list of the books that each year group will be reading and studying. To end our celebration, on Friday 10th March we are inviting the children to dress as characters from their year groups' chosen books.

Nursery - childrens favourite books
Reception - Traditional Tales
Y1 - The Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle
Y2 - Wild by Emily Hughes
Y3 - Charlie and the Chocolate Factory by Roald Dahl
Y4 - Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe

The application forms for children starting Nursery September 2017 are available from the school office. If your child was born between September 2013 and August 2014 and you would like them to attend St Peter's Nursery, please come in and pick up a pack. Applications need to be submitted by Friday 17th March.

King Arthur - Y4 school trip

Our year four pupils had a fantastic trip yesterday. All the children enjoyed Michael Morpugo's adaption of King Arthur at the Broadway Theatre. Afterwards, they ate their lunch in the foyer and were very well behaved. I'm sure they all shared their experience with the families.
